

Preserving the Past:
The History of Upton's Open Spaces

Friends of Upton State Forest Meeting and Program February 6, 2012, 7 PM (Snow date is February 13)

at Upton VFW, 15 Milford St, Upton

No charge, public is welcome

Questions: Joan at 508-529-3164 or friends@friendsofuptonstateforest.org

photo courtesy of Upton Historical Society

Following a brief business meeting FUSF member, Bill Taylor, will present a power point program about Upton's open spaces. He will share his extensive research about the history of Peppercorn Hill, Warren Brook, Stefans Farm and Sweetwilliam Farm and, how the history of those places reflects the general history of Upton. Bill weaves information about the people, the land, and the physical evidence of how they used it together in a very interesting program.